Michael S. Bender, Esq.
Member – Kaye & Bender PL

Michael S. Bender is a firm member of Kaye & Bender P.L., representing community associations and works with volunteer boards on a day-to-day basis. In his dealings, he considers communication a vital factor in successfully assisting organizations to understand the statutes and regulations directly impacting them. Bender also focuses on developing his team of legal professionals by empowering them with new challenges, and providing them with educational opportunities and best practices. His commitment to his profession includes his service to legal associations. Bender also actively participates in the Community Associations Institute, serves on the board of directors of the South Florida Chapter and is a chapter representative to the Florida Legislative Alliance. Recently, he accepted an appointment for a three-year term to the 17th Judicial Circuit Bar Grievance Committee serving Broward County. As a legally renowned leader, Bender offers this advice: "The best way to become knowledgeable and a respected expert in your field is to actively participate in industry and community groups."

Robert L. Kaye, Esq.
Managing Member – Kaye & Bender P.L.

Robert L. Kaye is managing member of Kaye & Bender PL. At the inception of his law practice, he focused on tax law for Raymond, Rupp, Weinberg, Stone & Zuckerman P.C. in Michigan. In 1987, he moved to South Florida and shifted his practice to community association representation. Today, Kaye leads the representation of hundreds of community associations and management companies. He is customer-oriented, but does not neglect the needs of his associates and staff. He provides leadership by maintaining an open door policy, welcoming input from staff and encouraging teamwork. As a specialist, Kaye is a lecturer and is regularly published in national and local media about community association law. Recently, he finished his three-year term serving on the Florida State Bar's Grievance Committee and the Committee on the Unlicensed Practice of Law. Kaye advice: "To create and operate a successful business, you must dedicate as much of your waking time as you can give to it without sacrificing your home life. Some sacrifice will likely be necessary and there is no substitute for hard work."
