The community association law firm Kaye & Bender is a comprehensive commercial law firm offering legal representation to a diverse clientele primarily consisting of more than 700 community associations throughout Broward, Miami-Dade and Palm Beach counties. Under the direction of attorneys Robert L. Kaye, Esq. and Michael S. Bender, Esq., the company provides clients with an unparalleled level of personalized and professional service regardless of their size and takes into account their individual needs and financial concerns. Kaye & Bender assists clients in all matters of representation including, but not limited to, collection of assessments, contract negotiation, covenant review and amendment, covenant enforcement and construction defect claims. It also keeps clients up-to-date on new developments in the law and how they are personally affected by them. Robert Kaye and Michael Bender are industry leaders who are often sought out by public policy makers and the media for advice and commentary on community association law and frequently give lectures in free public seminars.
